

IN SHORT

With 20 years of experience in the creative scenes of NY and LA, I am the person you will call to ask, “do you know anyone who ____?”, and undoubtedly, I do. I will make the connection, effortlessly source the right people, places and things, and bring the brief to life. Strategically building and managing teams for each project, both by skill and personality, is one of my fortes. All the logistics are sorted, the tone is on point, and the people are smiling. Oh, and we’re not over budget. When I’m not problem solving, I am searching for vintage furniture, walking rescue dogs or hanging out with my 4 year old mini me.
